“ A tribute to my mother. I always thought God sent me an angel to be my mother. You set the bar high and expected nothing less than how you raised us to be kind loving people. You taught us to respect our elders, mind our manners, and treat everyone kindly with dignity and respect. You always told us to trust in the Lord, pray all the time, when things are going good and when things are going bad. You would say the Lord knows what you need and when you need it. I loved seeing your face light up, when we sat around you talking about the books in the Bible. I knew you were proud , cause you taught us well. Mother , you shared so many memorable stories, about your life, and your love for the Lord, we can't help but to put the Lord first in our lives, it is the only way. I always valued and admired you for always being that kind , loving person, that I could count on when I needed to talk and when I needed you to listen. I dreaded the talks about you going home to be with the Lord, because I didn't want to imagine being here without you, but I knew deep down inside my heart , you were preparing me for when the Lord would take your hand and lead you home in heaven. My heart aches because I know I won't physically see you again, however; I have peace knowing that you are in heaven with the Lord , and that's where you wanted to be. Until we see each other again, I will continue to live with you in my heart. I will put the Lord first in my life in everything I do , as you instilled that in me. I love you Mom

“ Sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God provide the necessary peace and comfort to your family and friends during this difficult time. Please remember these words of encouragement from the Bible: “ Jesus plainly told her: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” —John 11:20-25.
