“ I worked with Chad at Castle Metals. Rarely are we privileged to meet someone who enriches every life that they meet, but Chad was that man who did. His spirit was contagious and his willingness to help others was always present. Chad loved his family and was always very proud of them. My prayer for his family is that God will comfort them during this time. I have been blessed beyond measure to have known Chad and his family.

“ I first and foremost want to extend my condolences to every one who knows and loves Chad.

I spent most of my time with Chad at church as kids. He had an amazing spirit and light about him. He was a great friend, always sharing a smile and a laugh. I, unfortunately, didn't get to know him as a man, but from what I've seen on Facebook and through some family posts, he was a great man, and still carried that amazing spirit and light. Rest well my friend.

“ I remember having Chad as a Sunday School student all too well!! He was full of himself and he was always handy to help out when things were not going to well in the class. But what I remember the most about him was his sincerity about life and God and where he stood with the Lord and that terrific smile. I'm glad for knowing Chad, he was a true blessing. Melissa and I are so sorry for his early passing. We are also thankful to have had the Williams family as friends. You all take care and we will be praying for strength from God during this time. We love you.

“ We are so very sorry about Chad. The last time I talked to him he was offering to help me with repairs at my house! He was a kind, loving man and I'm glad we got to know him, even for just a short while. Our prayers go to Heather, Faith and Jackson and Chad's parents and all his family.
