“ Hello Charlie,
I just heard that you are in the next journey to be with Him. You will always be remembered in all our fellowships.
I still remember the phrase.....
"And from your nerveless grasp shall drop forever the working tools of life, may it be your portion to hear from Him the welcome plaudit... Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter now into the joy of thy Lord."

May your family be comforted with your memories.

My heart-felt sympathy and prayers are with your family in this time of sorrow. I'm sure God smiles at the wonderful life Charlie was so blessed with!

Pam and Byron, you were always there for Charlie and I, and are great parents to look up to, my deepest regrets to you and your family.*

“ My deepest sympathy...God gave Charlie a smile and took his hand and welcomed him to a familiar land.

And its much more warm and fair than the last time he lingered there.

And though for his familiar voice you yearn,and every day,you wish for his return, he is home at last,comforted by the love,of every angel in heaven above.

He sheds no tears for the path he trod;for he has found everlasting warmth,beauty, and comfort in the hand of God.

I've always thought that we're travelers who came here to learn, and that our true home is above, where we'll leave behind our sorrow and forever find contentment.

I think heaven is a wonderful place where there's no pain--only comfort and warmth, a place where family and friends meet again.

And I pray that the feeling of pain of all the people whom touched by Charlie's life will soon be replaced by warm memories...

He will surely be missed.... I will... HE'S SUCH A GREAT CO-WORKER.

“ Pam and family,
Drew and I, Shannon and especially Andrew are so saddened to lose Charlie. He was Andrew's good friend in grade school. I remember Charlie at Andrew's 8th or 9th birthday. Charlie wrote Andrew the sweetest card about how special Andrew was to him. Andrew cherished that card for a long time. Please accept our deepest sympathy in your loss.
