

Charles William Droske

October 2, 1946 - August 29, 2021

Charles William Droske, 74, passed away Sunday, August 29, 2021 in Richmond. He was born October 2, 1946 in Houston to Otto and Lucille Droske. Charles was of the Lutheran Faith and worked as a machinist for a valve company until his retirement.

He spent all of his spare time in Sargent (Caney Creek), fishing with family, especially his mother and brother, where there was always competition to see who caught the biggest fish and the most. He also spent many hours in the woods squirrel hunting with his old buddy Tex.

Survivors include his brother, Robert Droske and wife Jeanette, 3 nieces, Carol Sullivan and husband Jeff, Diane Jenkins and husband Jerry and Cheryl Thumann and husband David, along with many other loving family members and friends.

Graveside services will be held Friday, September 3, 2021 at 10:00 A.M. at Resthaven Cemetery in Houston. The family will receive friends Thursday evening from 5-8 P.M. in the Stateroom at Davis Greenlawn Funeral Home in Rosenberg.
