“ Charlie, I know this is late coming to you. We knew each other from the 3rd grade at Horn as well as living 3 doors from each other. We had many great times as neighbors, playing sports and you being my Pisshead buddy in A-1 at A&M. Unfortunately time and my jobs kept us apart. I was a bit surprised when you contacted me after so many years. I have tried to contact with Steve but haven't been able to find him. God be with you my dear friend Sam

“ I could go on forever with the stories. I can't put a number on the amount of hours Charles and I spent on the phone together. No cell phone battery could keep up with us. He was a great mentor and an incredible friend. All of his words of wisdom are permanently implanted in my mind and I am so deeply saddened by this loss.

Pat, Chad, Billy and Ashley..he was so proud of all of you!

We have all been blessed by knowing Charles.

“ I played Little League with Charlie, his brother, and their Dad, the coach. It was Cubs versus Dodgers. They used to put paper cups in the dugout wire and change the pattern each half inning. It was signals very sophisticated for Bellaire Texas LL. We lost touch and came back at TAMU. We were both in A-1, Animal A , in the Corps. He was a year ahead, but a good guy regardless. My condolences, goodbye Charlie.

“ Charlie, old friend, we used to sneak past the velvet rope at your living room just because we could. And I'll remember you, just because I can.

“ Good bye Daddy. We were an awesome dad. You loved me no matter what I did. You were my football coach as a child, and always could make me laugh whether it was telling a joke or the funny things you did. I will never forget how I learned from you that is always ok to laugh at yourself. I will miss our conversation about football and how our Texans always let us down but we never gave up on them. I will always love you and remember you. I will always see you in my son Charlie's smile
