“Grief is never an easy thing to accept but part of life that all of us at some point in our lives must face. I love this quote written by Irving Berlin “The song is ended but the melody lingers on.” After reading some of your life’s story I felt it would be so true to those that knew you well and loved you. Your melody will linger on in both happy times as memories are shared. On those days where the darkness of grief comes for many, I pray your melody left behind will remind their hearts to smile.

I close with John 3:16 for it is in the conversation between Nicodemus and Jesus that I find hope. “For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believe in Him shall not die, but have everlasting life”. I will see those who left this world and in that I find peace.

I pray that each person find that same peace comfort in this time of sorrow.

“We are deeply saddened by this news. We will always cherish the memories of being neighbors with Carlos and Helene and watching Lisa and Thomas grow up together with our children. Carlos was so full of life and joy and was a great leader in the community, an awesome husband, father and friend. He set such a great example of how to live life and treat people. Carlos will be missed by so many and the Treviño family extends our deepest condolences for his passing.
