“Kind hearted, caring and full of compassion for all who crossed his path, a champion of and for anyone who was in need. A Christian man who was confident and secure in his faith and his walk with our Father God. If he said he loved you, he meant it, if he pledged his support you could count on it, if he said he was concerned about you and was lifting you up in prayer, you could believe it without a doubt. Charles loved Miranda, Blessing, Hope, Charity & Trinity with everything he had to love them with, they were and will always be the shining jewels in his crown. He took care of his family doing whatever was necessary to provide their every need and or want. Always the first to step up and help those in need never expecting anything in return. He was a true blessing to all of us everyday. A smile, a hug, a kind word is how he greeted everyone. Although he has left behind this earthly world he will remain with us in our thoughts, prayers and our precious memories until we meet again. Viya Con Dios Charles. Forever grateful for the blessing of you.

Grannie Cat*
