“ From the very first time we met, you welcomed me If I was already your family. We had a lot of fun adventures together when you and Francine would come and visit. I'm sad that we didn't get more time together. You always had the best smiles, and I love the way your face lit up when you saw Korie or spoke to her. I couldn't have asked for a better father in law. You will forever be in our hearts.

“ Too many memories to share, most of them pleasant. Dad was a considerate, generous man who made a huge impact on those who came to know and love him.

Born and raised in Fall River, MA, dad was one of six children. He married Elsie Grumet in 1952, and raised three sons. He served in the Air Force for 14 years, moving his family to Fresno, CA in 1957. Out of the service, he worked at San Joaquin Dressed Beef in Kerman, doing accounting before landing at Shell Oil Co. in Menlo Park in 1967, working in cash receipts for over 25-years and relocating to Houston, TX, retiring in 1992.

Dad loved to eat, drink, and be around family and friends He could cut a mean rug, and loved to go out dancing. He loved to grill, and his chicken was legendary. He loved Frank Sinatra, Nat "King" Cole, and Ella Fitzgerald, and instilled a love of music to his sons.

Dad certainly enjoyed life, and lived it to the fullest. Rest in peace, Daddy-O - you may be gone, but you will never be forgotten.
