“ We are so sorry to have just learned of Charlie's death. He was a great friend. We shared many adult beverages at the Burlap Barrel and the Poop Deck. We were two crazy cowboys who rode our horses into the Barrel. The horses were never the same. RIP my friend.

“ Charles was a tough competitor, but always honest in his dealings with others. I always enjoyed seeing him at factory meetings, award trips and other occasions when we could swap stories and ideas. He will be missed by all who knew him. May God bless his soul.
