“ Charles or Pap-paw is my sisters' father-in-law, but everyone in our family came to love him. He was the kindest soul. My son lost his own Gpa and later his Dad, Charles and Rodney stepped in and embraced him and his love of hunting and took him out when we had no idea where to even start. His generosity and kindness were unmatched and he had an absolute heart of gold. I will never forget the kindnesses he showed my boy in his darkest times. And I have never seen a bond like he had with his grand-daughter was unparalleled. She adored him and he her. They were the absolute cutest! His face would light up when she entered the room!! And she would delight him with her smile and hugs and kisses!! I hope he is with Ruby and at peace.

“ Got to know Charlie when the El Campo office closed therefore he was transferred to the Corpus Christi District. There was never a dull moment when Charlie was around. He loved to joke and pull tricks on everybody. I could not even begin to share all the stories about Charlie and the things he done to bring laughter to everybody but I will share my favorite. When we were transferred to the Bellaire office he kept things exciting everyday. One occasion we had some very "big shots" from New York come to visit us at our office. We had a meeting the day before to lay out plans and were told to be on our best behavior (very difficult for Charlie). The visitors stayed all day and we could not believe Charlie kept himself under control. When the visitors left we all had a sigh of relief as we made it through the day. When the visitors left Charlie begin to mock the main visitor. He pulled his shirt out, tied his necktie into a knot, pulled his pants all the way up as far as he could get them & had the top of his under ware showing while dancing around the room making fun of the visitors. What we did not realized was the visitors had exited one door only to come back in through another door at the very end of the office. I mean everything got so quite you could hear a pin drop. We all expected the worst. Not a word was said seems like forever when finally the main guest said quite a show young man everybody needs someone like you to keep the office relaxed and under control and started to laugh. Only Charlie could get away with something like this. You will be missed Charlie and I am so thankful to have been a part of your life even though it was only a short period of time. Being around you made a better person of me. Thanks for the memories.

I very vividly remember that Dale. After he realized he had been caught, he came over to my desk and pretended like he was talking to me about work. If you remember, my desk was right across from his in the Bull Pen.

*I didn't know Charles as well as his brother, Kenneth and I were in school together but because of small town we were all acquainted. But I knew him enough to know what an outstanding human being he was, how he loved and married his childhood sweetheart and his love for his children and grandchildren.
All his extended family loved him dearly and will miss him very much.

I am saddened to hear of Charles' passing but thankful for the good memories of the past. These remembrances are a blessing at this time. Charles was a childhood friend and a fellow Rattler thru and thru. He was real pleasure to be with. Knowing Charles you can see a lot of his mother and dad's traits---good the core! We shall all miss him. My prayers are with his family whom he loved dearly. jim ramsey
