“ Ida and August,

Words cannot express how very sorry I am for your loss. Having had the privilege to meet Charlie, I clearly understand what an inspiration he was to you as a husband and a father and know in your heart that he too was blessed by having an amazing wife and son like you.

“ So very sorry for the loss of Mr. Sliva. He was a very kind man who was very friendly and outgoing. My father rented the building behind him for a few years and every year he had his garden he would give my father vegetables from it and came often just to say hello. He will be missed!!!
