“ Your smile is unforgettable. The kindness of your heart was undeniable to all that took the time to know you. The pride you had in your children you shared every time we met. The sorrows for the time you missed with them saddened all who cared about you. You were looking toward the future and we shared the joy and expectations. You were a blessing in our lives and our sorrow is that we only had a brief time to know such a loving and caring man. You will be truly missed. May you rest in peace. Until we meet again....

“ You were like a big brother to me. Always making sure that no one messed with me and that I was ok. Now I like to think you will be doing that from heaven. I'll miss seeing the permanent smile on your face and our inside jokes and all the trouble we used to get into together. I'll be praying for your family and their great loss.
