“ I once described Chris and J.J. as an elegant couple, and I stand by that description. They were some of the first people we met when we started going to Sacred Heart and they became some of our closest friends. We always looked forward to the group dinners after Saturday evening Mass, and any other activities they participate in. Chris was such a wonderful friend that we made sure we kept her in our lives after J.J. passed away. She was a true lady and we will miss her greatly.

“ My sincere condolences go out to your family. Your mom was a precious friend of my mothers, and as a result I had the privilege of knowing your mother from the time I was very young. I always remember her as being a very kind and gentle person, always bringing joy to whomever she met. I especially remember the many alterations she made to wedding and bridesmaid dresses for me and for all my sisters. Her talent for sewing was a gift she shared so well! She will be missed. May our Lord's promise of eternal life bring you comfort and peace during this time.

“ Sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God provide the necessary peace and comfort to your family and friends during this difficult time. Please remember these words of encouragement from the Bible: “ Jesus plainly told her: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” —John 11:20-25.

“ Chris was a wonderful person. She and I had a good time out to eat when she went to the Dr. with me and I took her to the Dr. Also had a lot of fun playing Bunco together. I am sure she is in Heaven with her beloved JJ.

“ Chris and JJ were special people in our lives. When we moved in across the street, she knocked on the door with a loaf of her wonderful homemade bread and a beautiful smile. She welcomed my mom when she came to visit, and always greeted my grandchildren with a smile and a treat. She was a true lady, and both Chris and JJ lived their Czech heritage, never meeting a stranger. We were blessed to have known them both.
