“ Will always remember Chris as a great friend and fun loving person. Always positive. Rose and I still have fond memories of our trip to New York, Canada, and Niagara Falls. It was a great trip. In times like these, we must remember Jesus's promise of everlasting life, and of someday being reunited with loved ones. Until that day, may he rest in peace in the arms of Jesus Christ. May God bless and keep his family. Chris will be missed by all who knew him.

“ As so many of us I was greatly saddened and shocked by the news. My families thoughts and prayers are with Chris's family now. I am sorry for your loss. I worked with Chris for 3 years at Dixie and he was one of the best bosses I have ever had. He helped me and taught me many things without ever making me feel dumb or less of a person. He will be missed by myself and so many others. Truly a sad and unfortunate time.
