“ I lost my brother when I was 16 and I know how hard it must be for your family. Times like this the family must stick close and never forget you. Family, always remember that Love and those happy memories will guide you away from these morning days. weeks. months, and years to come. I think about my big brother everyday and am happy to say that I gained a brotherhood when I joined Sigma Lambda Beta International Fraternity Incorporated, and just from what I've heard or read I know you were a great brother. You were a symbol for great Latino men in college to better their lives for themselves and for their families. I know it is very hard for the Galvan family but you should always remember "The sun will shine again today just as it did yesterday"

“ I never had the privilege of meeting you brother, but I believe who we are is most adequately seen through how we are remembered. It is apparent through the many people that now remember you just how much of an amazing person you were on this earth. May you rest in peace and may one day solace live in the hearts of those you left behind.

“ R.I.P. Brother Chris "Oro" Galvan.....

My name is Tony "Leombacio" Aguayo, Beta from U of H, Fall 09, MU Chapter.

I know Chris was one of the Great Betas and will be missed by many. I was present at his Omega Ceremony, where I had the honor in hearing some testimonies about Brother Oro, which in return inspired me to be just as strong, positive, and helpful to everyone in my life as he was, as well as dedicated to the end and stand for what I believe in.

“ I was a project manager at Hudson Products. One of my first assignments was to estimate a low level file and prepare a proposal for a customer. That is when I met Chris. I remember walking into his office and briefly introducing myself as a new project manager. I remember asking, "...I have a file that I need to get estimated. Do I give this to you?" He asked, "What kind of file is it?" I, being a completely green newbie replied, "Uh, I don't know, a blue colored file." After he chuckled, his signature chuckle, he told me with the gleeful intent of razzing me, "now, how can I help you if you don't know what you're giving me?" Me, with a baffled look on my face, said, "You know, you got a good point there." Finally, he giggled and said, "Alright, give me the file and I'll see what I can do." Inconsequentially, he knew what the file was all along just by looking at the cover, he just wanted to jive me a bit.

Later, after Chris estimated the file, I submitted the proposal without having really done anything to it myself. One of the higher ups in the company, named Sam, emailed me saying what a good job I did. I had to reply back to him while carbon copying Chris that I really didn't do anything! It was Chris that did most of the leg work on the file. Sam responded something to the effect, 'Great work both of you.' That's when Chris came to my office and told me, "thanks for putting in a good word for me." From there on out, he was my friend that I really enjoyed talking with.

Christopher Lee Galvan, you will be sorely missed my friend. We'll all see you again one day.

“ I met Chris when I was at BF Terry High, but it was not until UH did I get to know him. I was friends with his roommate. Naturally, we started hanging out together at UH, and it wasn't long before we found an organization that we both wanted to be a part of, Sigma Lambda Beta. I pledged SLB the semester after he did. I have always considered him a dear friend and brother, and his love for the fraternity and what it stands for could be seen in all that he did. He was a true gentlemen and leader. I will miss his smile, laugh, and calm demeanor. Although I am a year older than him, he was someone I always looked up to, and I was and still am proud to have known him. “ Dear Brother Galvan,
My condolences go to your family and loved ones. I wont say what a great guy you were, or how you really were "oro" to those that knew you, because they know that. I'll just say thank you. I remember meeting you when I was just a Neo, I was just a kid young and oblivious to a lot. But meeting brothers like yourself made me grow as a person even if all we had was a minute to talk. These are the memories that makes our Sigma Lambda Beta so great, the brotherhood across state lines, across walks of life, and at the end of it all the love we can feel for a complete "stranger". My prayers go out to you and your family. Til the day we meet again in Omega.

“ My condolences to the Galvan Family.

O God, grant the Galvan family a moment to reflect on your gift to them. Help them to see your touch in all that has already happened and to hope that you will be with them in all that is still coming their way. For the tasks you have given them and for strength to face them. For these moments of peace and for all the ways you keep them going, we give You thanks and praise. Amen.

“ Dear Angelica, Josh & Baby Sophia,
We we're so blessed to know Chris and grateful that he was part of our lives. His love he had for his family was evident throughout. We pray that God's comforting hand will guide you through this difficult time and give you strength that surpasses all understanding. We love you. Jb, Amy & Amber

“ *Dearest Galvan Family-
You are in my heart, thoughts, and prayers. Though Chris's earthly tent has been taken down, we rejoice knowing that his house in heaven has been built by God himself and not by human hands. 2Cor5:1. May the the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.*

“ Dear Angelica, Josh, & Sophia

It was with a great sense of loss when we heard of Chris death. We wanted to let you know that you have our greatest sympathy, and our hearts are truly saddened. We know that his passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of all those who knew him. Chris will always remain within our hearts, and we have included Chris and you in our daily prayers. May God give you strength. If there is anything that we can do to help you in anyway, please do not hesitate to call us at anytime.

Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with you.

With our deepest sympathy,

Monica, Beverly, Eric & Nick

“ To the Galvan Family, its been tough with the death of Frances and i share your hurt its like she is still here but she is not. My family and i deal with this everyday and my greatest sympathy goes out to you all. I can share a story with you about Chris, i spent a night often at your house on friday night, Chris and i would play basketball while John would wash his car to go out. Chris will be missed but we will all see him in HEAVEN.

“ My deepest condolences to the entire family. I remember when Christopher would come to TGF Haircutters and get a haircut. He was such a young and sweet teenager at the time. I remember he was always so kind and respectful. I now have three sons and my oldest sons name is Christopher. I knew when I had my first son, I would name him after Chris Galvan. I'm so glad I had a chance to meet such a wonderful human being.
