“ I was deeply saddened by the news of the death of Chris. Chris was a very kind person. Being my sisters neighbor and getting to know him and Carla, both our families gathered every year on the 4th of July and New Years Eve to light fireworks for the kids and enjoy the evening sitting on the front lawn in the neighborhood. I will always remember those times. May God bless you and your family during this time and always.

“ Though I only knew you a short time I certainly enjoyed the time we spent together. I will miss you and your smiling countenance. You were always quick with a joke and willing to lend a helping hand. Rest well and do not worry about those you leave behind. We will be fine. God willing, we will all be together again once we are finished with this life.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. I will never forget you my Brother in law we had so many wonderful memories together thanks for being in our life Rest In Peace Chris
