“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Great Aunt Clara. I remember visits with my Mom to her house as a young girl. Always a warm, friendly smile & good smells coming from the kitchen. I remember Janie, also, as one of the sweetest people I ever knew; like Mother, like Daughter! - I know she is in heaven now with so many of our loved ones there. - God's blessings & graces to all!

“ I only met Clara a couple of times but I was really impressed with how nice and friendly she was. I know that her family has many wonderful memories of a life very well-lived. Be comforted by the fact that we will be reunited one of these days and be together for eternity. Our love and prayers, Elizabeth and Garland Sheppard and Harvey and Diane Russell

“ Loving memories of Clara Stavinoha. Always smiling and always 'just fine'. She loved her granddaughter, Laura, fiercely, and loved her little great grandson's who would crawl up on her for hugs and run to her. I know we will all miss her, but have the comfort that we will see her again in heaven.
