“ Momma Joan and family,

I ran across this today and wanted to share it with you. I believe when I saw it, it is about Claudia

Death is nothing at all.

It does not count.

I have only slipped away into the next room.

Everything remains at it was.

The old life we lived so fondly together in untouched, unchanged.

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by the old familiar name.

Speak of me in the easy way which you always use to.

Put no Sorrow in your tone.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be the household word that it always was.

Let it be spoken without effort.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever ways.

There is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well. Nothing is hurt, Nothing is lost.

One brief moment and all will be as it was before.

How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting, when we meet again.

We love all of you very much,

Pete, Alison and Alexa Almand

I thank god for Claudia as I had such a hard time leaving my friends in Arizona and moving to Texas. Claudia would make me laugh so hard, especially when she snorted in the middle of her laughing.

She made living in Texas good for me. I am so grateful to of been her friend. In life girlfriends lose contact but Claudia will always be in my heart. You know she is driving my dad crazy in Heaven. I smile when I think of her arguing with my dad and she always had the last word. Very few people had the last word with dad.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Words cannot ease the pain you're going through. I know because I lost my husband Nov. 2004 & my Mother this past April. Only time can heal the suffering you're going through. She will always be in your hearts and memories. I'm Debbie Friends Mother. She wanted to be there but is shy and said she would feel out of place, not knowing anyone there. She feels so bad for all of you. Forgive her for not being there for you. May God ease your suffering and give you peace knowing she is with him now. God bless you all.
