An Irish Blessing

*May you see God's light on the path ahead
When the road you walk is dark.
May you always hear,
Even in your hour of sorrow,
The gentle singing of the lark.
When times are hard may hardness
Never turn your heart to stone,
May you always remember
When the shadows fall-
You do not walk alone.*

“ I was able to meet Olga's dad and found him to be a very kind person just like her mom. I had the Blessing of working with Olga Barr and I got to hear lots of stories about her parents. Our parents had a lot in common and we often talked about how Blessed we were to have great parents. I'm sure the family will miss him very much. My prayers are there for all of you. Irma

“ I am sorry to hear of Mr. Rubalcaba's passing. I met him at Whataburger and we spoke often about sports and people we knew from long time ago in Richmond. He was a very nice man and I could tell he loved his family from his comments about his family.
