“ Coleen was my best friend when I lived across the highway from her

We use to go fishing, and hunting, and had wonderful times together.

She will be missed .

Rest In Peace my sweet friend.

“ Colleen was an active member of the Art League of Fort Bend in Rose

Each Tuesday, she would come by to paint with about another 6 or so , during this weekly open studio paint day. She had her own special spot left back corner and her many pieces of art in progress were always there for her next visit. Lunch together on Tuesdays is always a treat and Colleen had plenty to say letting us know her favorites especially the fish tacos

I personally loved her impressionistic artwork style and her floral artwork were exceptional. Colleen was always generous giving her artwork away to artists and friends and donating pieces to the art groups and community fundraising like ALFB in February 2015 and the Lone Star Art Guild in .

She had her own art opening and reception called "RED or Not" (a Valentine's theme) along with fellow artist and ALFB president, Diana Miller in February in historic downtown Rosenberg. It was a month long exhibit in the Third Emporium (now called The Front Porch) and was well received by the ,

Her artwork is currently showing at the 5th Street Gallery (Avenue I and J) and at ALFB's downtown Rosenberg gallery on the second level of Vogue Antique Emporium.

She will be missed by us all at the Art League of Fort Bend. Thank you Colleen for being a part of our lives and sharing your love for art.

All my love to her family

"Red or Not" ART SHOW & BENEFIT

Valentine's Day Theme

Saturday Feb. 7, 2015 from 3-5pm

Meet the Artists Free Reception

PRESS RELEASE Rosenberg, Texas, January 30, 2015 - The 3rd Stre

Emporium will host an opening reception on Saturday, February 7th from 905 3rd Street in Historic Downtown Rosenberg District. The award-winning artists are Diana Miller and Colleen Gerstenberger, local talents who with their recent oil paintings with a "Red or Not" for a Valentine's Day theme charge for the event, which is open to the public. Artwork will remain on available for purchase through February 28th.

"We are excited to showcase this juried art show that features two award-winning artists," said Sue Syvertson, a merchant at the 3rd Street Antique Emporium and President of the Lone Star Art Guild. "This will be the first in a series of Artist Receptions to be held at the 3rd Street Antique Emporium. Each with a different theme with art created by local artists for sale and the opportunity for donations to benefit a local charity. This is an excellent opportunity to view and shop for fine artwork and collectibles while giving back to the community. Artwork will be available for purchase, priced at an excellent value for art collectors. All voluntary donations collected at the venue during the month of February will benefit the Art League of Fort Bend. Diana Miller is President of the Art League of Fort Bend and specializes in realistic landscapes and still life oil paintings. Her inspiration comes from the Old Master painters. Colleen Gerstenberger, one of the original artists, helped establish the Art League of Fort Bend, is a native born to Rosenberg and has been painting since 1955. "She has a flowing impressionistic style and specializes in still life, landscapes and wildlife."
