“ I know you're watching over all of us, we miss you terribly. My favorite memories are of us when we were younger spending every summer with you at Nenas! We would make the stupidest most emmbaresing videos! But we had the most fun doing it. I remember we LOVED scary movies we would watch them all the time. Making slip n slides in the back yard too, oh man those were the good times. I love you so much and i will see you again one day.

“ I still remember how excited Shauna and I would be to talk to you on the phone intermittently as children when we would visit our grandparents in Ohio as you were in Texas. I remember the first time we actually met when you came to Ohio around 2009, and the love you showed to us would have made you think we had spent our entire lives together. You had such genuine warmth and kindness, it really was astounding. You were taken too soon. You were loved deeply by all of us here in Ohio and it is starkly apparent that the same could be said of those you left in Texas. I will forever cherish the memories cousin.
Much love, Megan McQueen

“ I truly enjoyed the times you came to visit. It's a shame that we grew up in different parts of the country, and we only met a handful of times. I'm grateful for the time that we spent together with all the cousins. I'm also glad I got to meet your son, Connor, he is a great kid, and it was a lot of fun spending time with you both the last time you visited Ohio. We Love you, Courtney. Rest In Peace.

“ I knew you before you starting walking. I use to spend time with you and your parents a lot because I worked at the apartments you all were living at.

Anyway, I remember playing ball with you and it rolled under a table. Both of your parents jumped up and got that ball before you were able to reach it in fear of hurting yourself...lol

I know it was out of love and boy did they love you! I watched you grow up to be an amazing young mother yourself. I know there was nothing you wouldn't do for your son. Please, know your family down here are watching out after him and he will be fine!

Enjoy this time with your Dad. I know how much you missed him.

Keep an eye out on the rest of us, till we meet again. I Love You, Michelle 🥺❤️ “ Cortney you will forever have a place in our hearts. We still have the beautiful picture that you drew for Hunter when he was just 2 or 3. It's hanging on his wall in his room. You had so much talent and I love seeing all of your artwork with so much Color and brightness to it. Just like you! I'm looking forward to the release of butterflies on your behalf. What a great way to remember you!

“ Although I never really knew Cortney, I have long enjoyed the pictures you shared of both her and Connor and the rest of your beautiful family. I wish you a happier year to come than this past one and hope the day will come when you can remember her not with tears but a smile for all she was to you. A return to joy and a hope in the Resurrection, where all tears will be wiped away and we will be reunited with our lost loved ones never more to part. A day I am really looking forward to. Wishing you all the best, Love Kathy Wagoner Mills.

“ Cortney was and is still a Gift to you Gigi from God. Before you knew of her, He did. Before the foundation of the world, Jesus had a plan to Save Her and all of Us. Life gets rough. We lose so many we love, but there is still a Hope. There is that Still Small Voice of the Holy Spirit that wants to Protect, Heal, Guide, and Bring you through this trial to that Beautiful Zoe Life, which is Eternal Life in Him. Praying always for His Grace and Mercy. I love y'all.

“ I miss you Miss Cortney. I was thinking the other day how your mom and dad would call on Aunt Lisa when you wouldn't take a nap. You always took a nap for me. Sometimes I'd fall asleep before you. lol Cortney, you're taking a nap right now. Getting all rested up for the big celebration we'll be having when we're all together again. I love you Cortney, and know that we know you're watching over your mother and Conner. Until we meet again. Aunt Lisa

Lisa Barnes - February 08, 2018 at 06:19 AM

“ When God called Cortney home, a piece of our hearts went too. It is always difficult to let go of those we love when it is their time to leave this earth. When Cortney left, it hurt more as most of her earthly life was left un-lived. Also, a sweet boy can't physically hold on to his mom any more. Cortney lives in what remains of our hearts and the greatest part of her legacy is her sweet son who was her very life. And it showed. Rest in peace Cortney, you are loved. May each family member and friend feel God's embrace of comfort when each needs it the most.

I don't know where to even begin to tell you how much you are missed. I can't believe my heart just keeps on beating when it is so broken. I love you and miss you...your voice..your friendship...you being my kid. Please watch over Conner and give me strength to live without you. Oh baby....75 days ago my world ended, but it keeps going. Your son misses his mama..he is being so brave. Too brave. The way this old works is going hopefully I'll see you sooner than later. I love you Cortney..my baby
