“ I am sorry for your loss. While on earth Jesus cured and resurrected people. He did this to show that he has the power to do so. Also he did it to demonstrate what he will do on a much larger scale in the near future. At John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29, Jesus said, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out....."

“ I am sorry to read of your loss. Many have experienced the death of a loved one. In God's word, at Revelation chapter 21 verse 4, it reads, "And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Jenna, Justin and Jacob,

We are terribly sorry for your loss and not a day goes by without us thinking about each of you. In fact; each night before Braden goes to bed he prays for you and your mom. Cindy was such an unforgettable woman. Words can not express how humble and genuine she was. She was always a pleasure to be around with, if only there were more people like her. Please know that we are here for you and will do whatever we can. I completely understand the loss of a parent, so Jenna if you need anything let us know. Just one thing to remember is to talk about her everyday. This will not only help you, but also for her to live on with Jacob. Take care of your DAD! We are here for you and your family, so let us know if there is anything that we can do. WE LOVE YA'LL!!!!

“ To the Brady Family,

I know how heavy your hearts are for the loss of Cindy. Cindy was the epitome of "sweet." I have met few people that I could say that about. She exuded warmth and loving kindness. May her memories be the strength to carry you through your time of grief. She will be missed tremendously. I pray God's strength to carry you through this difficult time. I was a former co-worker @ CSCD with Cindy and have nothing but wonderful memories of our times and conversations with each other. I'll never forget her usual and excited greeting when she would see me. It was always, "hey there lady bug." Her zest and love of life was infectious. A true gem.

“ To Mrs. Gajewski, Brad, Jeremy and Jenna; My memories of Cindy were all wonderful. She was the first person I met when we moved to TX nearly 27 years ago, graciously watching my then 5 and 3 yr. olds while I house-hunted. We immediately became fast friends, renewing that friendship at LaLeche League meetings, through messages to Brad, running into each other around town, then this March at Weight Watchers. It always seemed as though no time had ever passed. She will be remembered as a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Her vivacious personality and that beautiful trademark smile will be deeply missed, but I am looking forward to spending Eternity with her in Heaven. May God hold each of you in the palm of His hand as you learn to walk this path without her.

“ To Cindy's family & friends,
It's hard to find the words at a time like this. Cindy is the type of person that everyone enjoys being around. Always happy, always smiling, always there when you need something. “ i actually changed the name that i had picked out for my yet to be born daughter from Julie to Jenna because I saw something in the Herald Coaster about Jenna Brady - she was born in 1989. I think I saw Cindy in a pharmacy in a supermarket when Jenne was only days old and I told her this. I cannot believe this has happened and I feel so strongly because her daughter's name determined my daughter's name. Cindy,you were nothing but always a friend to me and I know that you are with our GOd and Father. maybe we will all have a high school reunion in heaven one day. “ To the family of Cindy,

On behalf of the members of Catholic Daughters of the Americas CDA, Court Holy Rosary # 1476, we would like to express our deepest sympathy to all of you on Cindy's sudden passing. Cindy was installed as a member this past February and although she has been a member for a short time she will be remembered by all as a very special person. We shall miss her and she will be in our prayers.

“ Cindy's family, Cindy was the nicest person you could ever have as a friend. Cindy was a giver, always putting others before herself. If you were in need she would grab your hands and say lets pray. I will miss her wonderful attitude and smile. But I know she is in heaven with big fluffy wings watching over us all. I pray that God wraps his loving arms around you and carries you through this difficult time. God's Blessings.

“ Jenna and family, I just wanted you to know that we will all miss Cindy more than you know. She touched many lives when she worked at the 4-H Office and always welcomed kids and parents with a smile on her face and willing to help. Those summer days when record books were due, she would always be there to help our family when we were missing things at the last minute. That was Cindy, there to help and willing to give. She's your guardian angel now and know that she'll always be with you. My thoughts and prayers are with you to help get through these new few days and weeks.

“ I am so sad to know that my dearest childhood companion has tragically left this earth. I treasure the wonderful memories of growing up with her on Magnolia Street. The Gajewski girls and the Cerny girls were virtually inseparable. Life took us on different paths, but anytime we ran into each other, it was as if no time had passed between us. The beautiful picture of her is classic Cindy as we all knew her. May you find comfort in your fondest memories of her.

“ I moved away 1990, but I still have family in Rosenberg and visit often. I'm sorry, but I don't remember, Cyndi and I worked together. Either at First National Bank of Rosenberg or at drugstore, which is no longer there. She was one the most nicest friend that one could have. I was so sad to hear of her passing, but I know she's gone to a better place. May God put his loving arms around you and comfort you during this difficult time. I'll see her when I get to heaven!
