“ Uncle Dale, thank you for all the memories we made when you and Ate Jonalyn decided to live with the Johnson family. It was a rollercoaster ride with you two and I am glad that we were all able to spend time together. You were one of the most creative and generous people I've ever met. You always find something to fix and you'd surprise all of us with your projects. I was hoping we would all be able to go on your boat when we go visit but things turned out differently. You will be missed, Uncle Dale. I will always remember you as the guy who loved “sisig with vinegar” and “chocolates.” Until we meet again, Uncle Dale.

Sincerely,

Sarah Curtis

“ Dale and Jonalyn came to our church in Eureka, CA while Dale worked in one of the hospitals here. With his busy schedule, he volunteered to fix our altar and roof. Both of them also did some painting. Dale had such a big heart as well as Jonalyn. So blessed to have them here even for a few months. What a joy for us to meet another "kababayan". Dale will always be in our thoughts and Jonalyn, you are in our prayers .
Until then Dale, we will meet again at Jesus' feet.

“ Dale.....I will miss you, man. I remember the years of playing volleyball together – competitive mode or “just for fun” mode which becomes merciless hitting when you want to beat the other team, the mission trips where your building and construction skills helped put a smile on people’s faces. You also put a smile on my face when you helped July install our hardwood floors:). Thank you for your friendship and we’ll miss you dearly.

Dale, you and Jonalyn came to our church and though just a few months you both became part of our family. Thank you for fixing our altar and roof and painted although you were busy at the hospital! Until we meet again at Jesus' feet.
