“ My deepest sympathy to your entire family during this time. My mother, Alice Niscavits, worked for Mr. Schlicher for many years at American Rice Growers in Richmond. I remember Mr. Schlicher to be a very kind and generous man. Praying for all of you.

“ Susan, I know you have wonderful memories to carry you through this time of initial loss. I hope and pray for you to have the peace of knowing you have had the time with your father that you have had and of knowing you were always there for him when he needed you. You and Kenny are in our thoughts and prayers at this time.
