“ My sweet Grandpa. For 37 years I was blessed to call you my Grandpa. Throughout my life you have showed me that not only do you have an infinite amount of knowledge but an infinite amount of love as well. You taught me how to kill ants and round up and all about how breakers work and what trips them. You also told me the best stories from about the time you served our country to when you were younger and picked cotton in the fields and played music in the band. You filled the house with music for us from fiddle to guitar to accordion when we would come spend the night when we were little. And always had a good polka tune for us. You were always there for us Grandpa. No matter our faults you loved us so much and we felt it. I am so honored I got to call you my Grandpa. I will always love you. Dokud se zovu nesejdeme. Until we meet again Grandpa.

“ Thank you, Daniel, for always making me feel like a part of your family. You opened your home and your heart to me and I will forever consider myself blessed for having known your kindness. I will miss all your stories and listening to that old music with you. You had such a sweet spirit and you will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved you. Godspeed.
