“ Gloria, You, Dan, and I shared some good times together in my twenty years at Holy Rosary. There were meals and bbq at your home, there was the fish fries, and there was our trip to Europe. After that trip, Dan always enjoyed talking with me in our crazy, made-up German. Fond memories of Dan. Gloria and family, you have my love, prayers and sympathy. He was a good man. May he now rest in the peace and new life of the Risen Christ.

“Gloria and family, I just wanted to give each one of you my deepest sympathy on the loss of Dan. He was a landmark at all of the church and K of C activities, and will be deeply missed. I know the fish frying will never be the same. I also would like to say I always enjoyed talking to him at any function we were working at, and it will be a loss not seeing him at future events. “Dear Gloria,
Our special thoughts and prayers surround you as we remember our wonderful friend. Please know that we are here for you. Dan had the rare ability to make us laugh the “laugh till you cried laugh” and to make us feel loved and we instantly loved him back! He amazed us with his unselfishness and willingness to share his time and extensive knowledge about almost anything at all. Dan’s absence will leave a hole in our hearts, but he leaves us a legacy of wonderful memories that will endure so that he will always be with us.
We’ll miss you Dan!

Gloria and family I am deeply sorry for your loss. I will always cherish the fond memories on the trips we took not only to the casinos but our road trips. He liked to kid and give me a hard time while you would tell him not to tease me so much. Dan will be greatly missed and is in a Happy place.

“ Gloria
My deepest sympathy to you and your Family. I will never forget all of the good times and fun we shared when we traveled and Dan and I sat in the backseat listening to all of his jokes and smart remarks while listening to two women in the front seat. I remember what a fun time we had when we bought our matching hats at the casino while parading through the casino showing them off.
