“ Darrell's wit and smile will certainly be missed. He always had some tidbit of information to share that would make you smile. He realized I was born the year of his high school graduation and would remark, "Just remember, I know how old you are!"

Either at his home on Main St or Laura Lee's home, he would be seen outside mowing or doing something in his wood working shop; with his big hat on. A honk from my car would always bring a hand up in a wave and a big smile. I never did buy one of his wishing wells.

He was such a sweet man with a big heart. Yes, he has joined sweet Ida, Lawanna and Rick and they are probably playing Wahoo. Vivian and Laura, thank you for sharing your daddy with us.

*Love and prayers are with you, your families and Lawanna's family.

“ My late husband, Vic Novosad, and I knew Darrell and Ida when we were members of the Silvertones choir in the nineties, and we became great friends with them. To the Pamplin family I send my utmost sympathy and cherish the memories of having known them.
