“ Met Dave at the fitness center. Enjoyed his sense of humor and his "never met a stranger" attitude. We shared jokes, politics, and observations. Mrs Bruns, thank you for sharing him with us. He's a really good guy and I will miss him.

“ David and I grew up together, going thru early life, schools, and what have you together. He went into service about the time I went to college. After that I lost track of David until we meet again in 2003 at a high school reunion hoping to get together to talk over old times but never did.
