“ Some of my fondest memories of David are some of the earliest. We were separated by only 6 years so he could've been an older brother as easily as an uncle. Anyway, he always had the coolest gadgets and a stash of movies my parents wouldn't let me see. My single clearest memory is tagging along to the overnight shift when he handled the programming at a Houston radio station. Who knew something could be so exciting and boring at the same time?
