“ Dave and Donna were our neighbors for many decades. We formed a club when I lost my husband, Ray, Dave & Larry lost their wives. The cul-de sac club. We would go out to dine once a month and often played dominoes together. Dave was my biggest competitor and he loved to debate. He often helped me with my "honey do" projects, those items that needed a man's strength or knowledge. I tried to be a good neighbor to him in return. He always had his US Flag flying. He is sorely missed. My sympathy to his Family. ”

I have had a tree planted in Dave's name. I think he would like that.

“ Dave & Jake have been good friends for the past six years. Mackie & I would join them rain or shine almost every evening to walk at the Pecan Grove Park. He even tutored my husband on the installation of our new oven.

I will miss his company and our many spirited conversations on just about any & every topic under the sun. There are not many people you can laugh, argue, & talk to all in a 30 - 60 minute walk!

I will continue to listen for the echos of Dave's, "Jake! Jake! COME HERE!!!" Rest in peace Dave & Jake.

“ David and his beloved dog, Jake walked many miles with me and my little dog, Harley in Pitts Park. Harley and Jake were great friends and shared the same drinking bottle, racing to see which of them could drink the most. Jake always won. Some times he drank so fast that he throw up. I can still hear David yelling out Jake's name if he wandered too far from us. Some times we got in trouble for letting our dogs go off leash. There were four of we men who walked together with our dogs, Bill, Ken, David, and me. Bill and David are now gone and I don't know what ever became of Ken for I moved away from Richmond in 2015. I had just recently talked with David, around the holiday season and he told me Jake was still living. I am thankful for having known David whom I respected a great deal. I pray for David and his daughter, of whom he often spoke with great pride, as well as other family members and friends who mourn David's passing. LARRY AND WANDA DAVIDSON
