“ Dear Mom Mildred, Carol and family,
I wished I could have come today. Bill and I both are traveling and oh how I wished I could have come. You all have been in my thoughts and prayers today. I left a message at the house last night, but missed you. My mind has been full of precious memories as I think of my sweet neighbors. what precious times we had and they are our memories to keep forever. Mr. Dave was such a gentle man and He was always the same everyday and all the time. I can see his sweet smile as he teased me about climbing over the fence as I did often to come to your house. You all are always in our thoughts and hopefully we can get together soon.
I know he is sitting in the breeze and visiting with all the ones he has missed. When we see him again, we'll have a lot to visit about!!
I love you,
Patti

“ Throughout the years of Mr. McClung's employment with Fort Bend County, I had the opportunity to associate with him, on a first name basis, many different times. I will always remember his soft-spoken demeanor and the way he consistently went the "extra mile", regardless of the task. It was a privilege to know Mr. McClung. His family will be in my thoughts and prayers.
