“ *May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rains fall soft upon your fields

“ I am very sorry for the loss of your dearly beloved one. We yearn for the day when sickness and the aging process is reversed. We yearn to see our dear loved ones again. Jesus promised, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out -John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29. Also Job 33:25

You and your family have been in my prayers often over the past week and a half. I pray that you all can find peace in your faith and the knowledge that your school "family" will help in any way we can.

“ Amie and family, Sam and I are so sorry to hear of your loss. A friend once told me that when a man dies so young it is because he has completed all of God's work in a few short years. May you find peace in each other.

“ Amie,
I have experienced your pain. There is nothing I can say to make it all better. Only time can start to heal your pain. Just remeber that friends and family are there for you and your children. Keep yourself as buzy as possible. If you need anything at all please let me know.

“ Amie, please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your husband. You guys were our neighbors for a few short months before you bought the house and I am not going to forget him. Charlie once came running to me from your house saying that he wanted to be like Tyler because "his stepDad taught him all kinds of cool stuff". I thank God we knew him for this short time.

“ Our deepest condolences for you and your family. We will never forget our Dear Friend David. We will miss him everyday coming back and forth for Riley. He was always so sweet and friendly. We all just couldn't help but laugh when he would pull up with Riley in his jeep. Of course she was always strapped in her car seat and on top of the world with her daddy. He was so proud of her in her sun glasses and army boots. May God grant you and your family comfort in this time of grief.
