“ David you were the sweetest person ever. I was always amazed by your intelligence when it came to sports, although you never played, you always knew all about them and the players. I know you loved the Texas Longhorns but did not care for the Aggie's. This morning I found out just how much you didn't like Texas A & M because i was just told that I gave you a maroon shirt for Christmas a long time ago and you never wore it. Thought about wearing maroon to say my final good bye, but I can't do that to you. Love you always David Wayne Rose. I'm sure you grandparents and uncles are waiting with open arms to greet you. Rest in peace my sweet nephew.

Love you always,

Mary Kramer
