“ Ronny, Ronny, Jr. and Rebecca, I am so sorry for your loss. Debbie and I grew up on Plaza Dr. and went to school together. She was always so sweet and funny. Ronny, Jr. you were born around the same time as one of my sons. I remember bringing my son over to your grandmother for two of you to play in the front yard while me and your mom caught up with each other. I few years ago, two of my sisters lived in Sugarland and we all met up with Debbie for lunch. We had such a great time catching up. I will cherish these memories. Debbie was a special person and will be dearly missed. Rhonda Michel Graffeo

“ I first met Debbie at our youth group at Trinity Baptist Church where we formed a singing group called, "Alpha." As we went on to Andrew Jackson High School Debbie, Tina, Kathy and I we started hanging out at lunch and going to church. As we got older we had a few picnics in the summer to get the youth group back together. We'll there were weddings and moves and babies. We'd still get together when we could. But Kathy, Tina, Debbie and I felt a connection and at that time we decided to get together once or twice a year. So we had weekends at the Beau Rivage in Biloxi, Mississippi. We treasured each other and the time we spent together. Debbie shared her love for her family, and her grandchildren. I was friends with Debbie for 45 years. There was a lot of love there. My thoughts and prayers are with Ron, Ronny, Rebecca and extended family as they go through the grieving process.

“ I really don't know where to begin but will make this brief. Debbie was one of my best friends since we were teenagers and we enjoyed so many good times together whether it be singing/traveling with our church youth group, going to proms or venturing out on our own by sharing our first apartment prior to our marriages. Our close knit group of girlfriends (Debbie, Tina, Vickie and myself) stood the test of time and up until our dear friend's passing, we truly enjoyed our "girls-weekend" trips. We had so much history and I will truly cherish all of the memories (both good and bad) of our experiences throughout our lives. I will miss my bestie but absolutely know I will be seeing her one day in our heavenly home.

My condolences to all of the Spera and Billiot Families (Ron, Ronny Rebecca, Gary, Terry, and extended families). I will continue to pray for comfort during this most difficult time.

*Sincerely,

*My heart is grieving along with all of you, it is ok to cry because the pain is real and the loss of Debbie really hurts deeply. But she is in the arms of her Mom and Dad. Dear Debbie my bestest friend, I will miss the dinners, traveling, laughing at silly things we did and the heart to heart chats we would share every day. She loved sharing her photos of her family get togethers and talking about her kids and grandchildren. I am so grateful and blessed to have you as my best friend and the joy you brought to my life. Will miss the twinkle in your eyes and the smile on your face every time we seen each other. Can't wait to see you again I know we will pick up right where we left off laughing and sharing stories. Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs to Ron, Ronny, Rebecca, Gary, Terry and extended family members. Sincerely,
