“ I'm so sorry to hear Destiny was taken away in such a manner. I went to school with Destiny at SAMS from 1983-1986. She was such a great spirit with an amazing smile. We went out together for a few months and I will always cherish her deep in my heart. So sad to hear of her passing. She deserved so much more.....

“ Destiny,
It's been somewhere close to 20 years since I've seen you. I went to school with you in Norway. The main thing I remember about you is your smile and laugh. You could light up a room just by smiling. It's a shame that I didn't know how close you were living to me. We could've had lunch & caught up on old times. It truly is a small world. I'm VERY SORRY for what happened and I feel for your family & friends. You are now with God & lighting up heaven with your smile. YOU WILL BE MISSED.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.

“ Destiny and I met as girls in Norway and were able to reestablish our friendship almost 25 years later. I am so thankful for the lunches we shared.
