

Diana G. Gonzalez

July 12, 1964 - March 1, 2026

Diana Gonzalez (Guerrero), 61, of Rosenberg, Texas, passed away peacefully on March 1, 2026. She was born in Wild Rose, Wisconsin, and later made her home in Rosenberg, where she built a life centered around family, love, and devotion.

Diana was a loving and devoted wife to her husband, Denis Gonzales, and a proud and caring mother to her children, Danny Gonzalez and Marisol Gonzalez. She was also a cherished grandmother to Cierra Trevino, Cesar Uribe II, and Cainan Uribe, whom she adored more than anything in the world. Her grandchildren brought her immense joy, and she treasured every moment spent with them.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Pascual Guerrero and Dora Guerrero, as well as her sisters, Olga Guerrero and Cinthia Rodriguez.

Diana will always be remembered for her warm heart and the love she poured into her family. She found great happiness in cooking and baking homemade goods for those she loved. Her kitchen was often filled with the comforting smells of home-cooked meals and sweet treats, which she happily shared with family and friends.

Above all else, Diana will be remembered as a loving wife, mother, sister, and grandmother whose kindness, strength, and devotion to her family will never be forgotten.

She will be deeply missed and forever loved by all who knew her.

Those honored to serve as casket bearers are Denis Gonzales, Danny

Gonzalez, Adrian Ramirez, Alejandro Torres, Raul Enriquez and Mario Ramo.
