“ Years ago, I was working out of town, and would come in to the office to pick up airline tickets. I would often bring my son with me. Diana made a great friend with my son. And almost every time we ran into each other, she would ask about my son, even though he is now an adult. She was a great friend and a lovely lady. I am sure she was excited to see her son again.

“ Diana was a constant source of sunshine in a sea of turmoil and change that is part of this industry. It always brought a smile to my face when I looked at an incoming call and saw on the caller ID it was her. (John 14:1-4)

“ When a first started working for Fluor, back in the late 1980's, the most welcoming part was being greeted by the smiling face of Diana. My heart is sad, but restored knowing there's another caring angel greeting all to a better place.

“ Diana was a very caring person. She always had a smile for everyone she met. I don't remember her ever saying anything bad about anyone. She kept up with all her friends birthdays and would remind us when someone had a birthday coming up. She loved her family and will be greatly missed by everyone she had contact with. May you rest in peace Diana.
