“ Dillon was an amazing person. We were so lucky to have met him and spent the time with him that we did working on the towers. He always put a smile on your face by just walking into the room. He was always there with hugs and jokes. We werent just safety Don and safety Bonnie to him, he called us his other parents on the road. We looked out for him as best we could. I will always have fond memories. He will be greatly missed. To the family, you are in our thoughts and prayers through this difficult time. He touched everyones hearts and will always have a place in everyones hearts. He has finally found peace. Never stop loving him and the beautiful children he placed in your lives as well. We miss him terribly. Someday we will all be reunited again.

“ Bubba, You and me shared some goofy times together. I want you to know how much I will miss you. I hope you are in a happier place now where everything is okay. Guess what! I am naming my son after you. I hope he is just as goofy as you were so we can always have you around. We all miss you, especially mom. But we are all glad that you are in a better place now. I love you bubba, AKA MY TWIN. See you soon one day. :

“ The man who entered every room the same way he left it. Like a tornado! But if the people in that room were not cheery, that soon changed with Dilly on the scene. A hundred unfinished projects, your mind always going a hundred miles an hour, you were the dreamer that held onto your dreams right up till our Father brought you home. When I met you at the Waffle House on 1960 with your Mother that day, you were 14, talking about 500 words a minute and the smile never left your face. Don't think you took a breath either. Last time I got to talk to you? Still the same!! And I know Heaven has been surprised at how much brighter it just became there. Rest in peace son. I loved you as my own.

“ *Dillon,
There is not enough I can say to you especially with only 1000 characters. I have been thinking so much about you and I. We have been thru so much together. I know you are looking down at me now with your goofy grin thinking come on Sis quit being a titty baby. Well you got it brother. Trust that with your help I will take care of everything that you could not finish and dreamed about. I love you so much Dildo. Rest in peace Brother because you deserve it more than anyone else. Your pain is gone now and you are up there with the good ole boys where you belong. I love you* “ GREATEST memories of you thru the years from a boy to a man. You had my heart from day 1 and knew it. I cant say how much I will miss you, the fixer who had so many big dreams. I will continue to dream for you luv and will make sure Mom is always taken care of. I have my last memory..you and Jenn were fighting over who I loved more and who loved me more, you or her. You won that arguement, you made me feel pretty special that night and I never told you. I'm glad I had the honor to love you and be loved by you. You are EXCEPTIONAL. You will always be my little Dill who would snuggle and sleep with your arms around my neck. I'm sorry I wasn't there more to let you know how much I loved you. Especially those nights when you and Mom would call me at 11:30 and you'd be telling me to get my a-- over there. I won't have the chance now but I know you'll visit me and tell me like you always did..Sherry you're too uptight, you need to relax and have some fun! Heaven is lucky to have you.

“ Richard and Vicki my heart goes out to you. Ericah, hopefully you will find comfort in the Lord. No one can prepare a person for a lost loved one and especially at such a young age. Feel some comfort in the fact the he will always live on in your hearts. Time will help ease the pain although nothing can feel the void other then the love you all shared. Love you guys!!
