“ I had the honor of working with Don at Pacific Life and Aetna. Don was the best boss, mentor, friend, and one of the greatest people I have ever known. I remember my first plane ride, I had to help out with a meeting in the Valley when working at Pacific Life. Don offered to drop me off at the airport, on our way he noticed I was nervous.. He asked me what's wrong. I replied, "Ummm I forgot to mention I was scared of flying and I've never been on a plane.. The look on his face was priceless. : Being the nicest boss that he was, he walked me into the airport and called me as soon as I landed to make sure I was okay. He was that boss that always cared about his employees. His memory will be remembered forever and will never be forgotten.

Sandi – Don often spoke about you and how proud he was of his kids. I know this is, and will be hard . I hope all the years of love and happy memories will be a comfort to you. All my thoughts and love are with you now and always.

“ A plate of food is given to us when we are born. It is full of all kinds of food. Some sweet and some very hard to eat. As we all know you could not leave the table until your plate was clean. Don has finally cleaned his plate and is now allowed to go out and play. Now for those of us that have not cleaned our plate should not be jealous, but celebrate with Don finishing. He will have many friends and family members to play with in HEAVEN.

Now to Sandi, Bobbie, Gary, Matt and the rest of his family just know that you all will see your husband, dad, brother, grandfather, and son again and it will be one big reunion.

God Bless

“ Words can't express how saddened I was to hear of Don's passing. I had the pleasure of working with Don for a number of years at Pacific Life. I have fond memories of us sharing stories about our sons and their endeavors, especially when it came to sports. Know that my heartfelt sympathy is extended to the entire Jones family.

“ To Sandi and family
The light of life is a finite flame. Like the Sabbath candles, life is kindled, it burns, it glows, it is radiant with warmth and beauty. But soon it fades; its substance is consumed, and it is no more.
In light we see; in light we are seen. The flames dance and our lives are full. But as night follows day, the candle of our life burns down and gutters. There is an end to the flames. We see no more and are no more seen. Yet we do not despair, for we are more than a memory slowly fading into the darkness. With our lives we give life. Something of us can never die: we move in the eternal cycle of darkness and death, of light and life.
This was extracted from my prayer book

“ I can't even imagine how difficult the early passing of Don is for his family. I worked as a Medical Underwriter at Pacific Life and had so many dealings with Don and his sales staff. He did a lot of living in his 60 yrs. and for that you have to be grateful

“ As an Underwriter and PreScreen Supervisor at Pacific Life & Annuity, I worked with Don for several years in the early 2000's. Don was a tough, but fair manager and I learned a lot from him regarding the art of closing a sale. I send my condolences to his family and his Sales Office #574 work family. Together, we serviced many employers throughout his region. We were all a team and Don will be missed.

“ Don always brings a smile to my face when I think of him. First time I met him, he was the ultimate Texas gentleman...offering me coffee and "force feeding" me homemade cookies. Later, I had the joy & privilege of working with him at PacLife. Many fun times. From getting stuck in an elevator in our new building to his exuberant youthful enthusiasm with his "cool sounding" glass packs he installed on his brand new pick-up truck. Only Don would do that...gonna miss you buddy:

“ Hi baby! I am in a world of grief over the loss of you and the love that you had for me. I cannot even begin to understand or wrap my head around why you were taken from me so soon. I can't believe we will never have the future that you and I had planned out together. My life is a shattered mess and I have no idea how or if I can ever pick up the pieces. My love for you is without measure and you were and always will be my one true love. I have to stop now because writing this is tearing me up however I will be coming back and talking to you again, all my love, for ever and ever

“ Don, what a great man and person. While we only meet a handful of times, Don made a huge impact and showed a very caring side of himself, took time out of his busy schedule to see me, and was very diligent. He always talked about his children and was very proud of his family. Don was an avid sports fan, and we always talked about the SEC and the Gamecocks.

I will definitely miss him.

My condolences to the Jones Family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Don at Aetna and believe me... his picture is probably found in the dictionary when you look up "True Texan!" He was a cowboy thru and thru and his compassion, integrity and sincerity for those he worked with or interacted with is rarely seen these days. He will be missed terribly but will never be forgotten! My sincere condolences to Don's Family during this emotional time.

“ I worked with Don at Aetna and remember him telling me that he treats his wife like a princess and he talked about his family all the time. I will never forget the support and kind words he would say when he learned my baby was diagnosed with Cancer. He said he prayed for him every day. Whenever I would give him good news, he would have tears in his eyes. I will always remember his kind soul and big smile whenever he mentioned his family. My prayers go out to his family. May your memories and his love for you give you peace during this time, always and forever!

“ *Dear Matt, Gary, Bobby and Shelly:
Don was so lucky to have ya'll... You're all he ever talked about. That man couldn't WAIT to get home to you and your mom and her good cooking. You are a spitting image of him, exemplified by your integrity, selflessness, and love for your family. I know you'll take good care of each other and allow your dad to continue to guide you through your heart. Rodger and I are here for you, too. Love, Jamie*

“ Letter from Heaven

*"When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
Filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart."*
