This is Neto and Toni, I want to extend our condolences to ya'll. The many years I worked with your dad were memorable and enjoyable. He was my first real boss, always had things to teach me, while working on the ranch about cattle, horses, and everything that made a farm, ranch work. He took me hunting when I was on Leave. I have nothing but good memories of him. May God Bless ya'll .

“ Don was such a good friend and hunting buddy. He and Bennie worked for weeks getting that old trailer ready for hunting season. Don and his tractor had camp looking like a park. He even though Bennie's camp cooking was great! Don would come over and work with Bennie on the lawn mowers or anything else that needed repair. I so appreciated his help getting our water well running after the Big Freeze. And he was here offering his support after Bennie's hospital stay. Don was just a really good man and will be solely missed. But we are sure the Lord has saved him a special place in heaven beside his loving wife. We send our deepest sympathy and ask God to bless and comfort his family in this sad time.
