“ Marlene and girls, We are so truly sorry about the loss of Donna. She was a lovely girl. I enjoyed my time working with her at The Place when she was just a young girl in high school. Imagine my surprise to find out some years later she was gonna be my daughter-in-law!!! I wish it could have worked out. I know you will miss her terribly. Please accept our sympathy and know that our thoughts are with you all.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your dearly beloved one. When Jesus walked the earth, he cured people and also resurrected loved ones back to life on earth. He did this to demonstrate what he promises to do on a much larger scale in the near future. At John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29, Jesus said, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

“ Aunt Marlene, Christin & Stephanie,

I have lost a cousin; and worse, a cousin I really did not even know. Marlene, I can not imagine the grief you must be feeling. I hope I never have to face the loss of a daughter.

Christin and Stephanie, having gone through this myself, I understand your grief.

Donna will forever be in your hearts and minds, but the pain will ease more as the time passes.

Though I regret having never become close to your family, know that the three of you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Warmly, Erwin and Linda Loesch

“ MY DEAR FRIEND,

I never thought we'd come to an end, but now you're gone. I hate that I waited too long to say again I love you, how are you, to see how you were living, to see what you've been doing, you'll be missed dearly; everyone knows that clearly. I come here today my friend to say I LOVE YOU GIRL, once again.

“ *Marlene,
We are sorry for your loss...I hope this poem will bring you comfort as it did for me.*

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

God Bless...

“ Christin

I am so sorry for your loss and my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family especially at this difficult time.

In this time of sorrow, first find strength from he who created us, and be thankful that he shared with you, your family, and friends the life of the one you love and miss,

And now rejoice as she is happy and with him.

Also find strength today and forever from those who care for and love you.

May God Bless You.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal,

Love leaves a memory no one can steal!
