“ Uncle Don was always there for us as kids. We spent most evenings in the alley hanging out in his driveway playing as our families hung out. I can remember painting deerstands and hunting together in my younger years. As a young man, I got my first boat and got to return the favor by taking him fishing to the Matagorda Jetties. He caught about 7 speckled trout that day and I caught none. It is one of my best memories of us together. Bailey, Mom, Dad, and myself will always cherish our memories. We love you Aunt Cece.

You can always tell he was very proud of his family: his wife, son, daughter in law, and his beautiful grandkids Emily and Eric....Im praying so deeply that God will give peace, healing, and understanding during this difficult time to the Jaroszewski family... “ Don was my father and best friend. He was always there when I needed him and offered the best advice. I will never ever forget our hunting and fishing trips. The times you took us camping and taught me to respect the outdoors. If I can be half the father my dad was I will be a tremendous success with my own children. I love you Dad.
