“ My heart is heavy for the loss of Dora. I never got the joy of personally meeting her but I feel as though I've known her for many years, thanks to Roci for all the updates and pics of her. Rest peacefully now Dora and know that your family will carry on with all that you taught them and the love you gave them. You will be deeply missed. Prayers to the family that you find strength in God and each other in the days ahead.

“ Dear Roci, I cant find any word to express for your sister's loss other than the hope of the resurrection Rev.21-3,4, assures that he will wipe every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither mourning nor outcry nor pain anymore because these words are faithful and true.
