“ Wade, I will never forget your Mom's genuine caring and kindness to me years ago when I fell out of the camper in the driveway next door and broke my ankle. She came running to my aid. She calmed me and comforted me as if I was her own child. Anytime I saw her, she was always first to say "hello" with a great big smile. She was blessed to live to see your boys grow into fine young men. She lived a long and happy life. May she rest in peace.
