“ Duvan Henao was a very loyal and hard worker. A lot of times he would stay to finish work orders without realizing that it was already past his time. He was always helping coworkers however he could and did a superb job at everything he did. Aside from work, he would always talk about the two things he loved the most, God and family. He will be missed by his coworkers, the patients that he served at the state school, and especially me. Duvan, now you are with the Lord. May you live in eternal peace and happiness with our Creator. Good bye and thank you for the wonderful years we have worked together.
