“ I had the honor of having the best father n law a guy could ever ask for, for 26 years. He was beyond the best papaw to my kids. Him and Nana never missed anything that involved my kids. I’m blessed they are a huge supporter of my family. He was a great man, father, papaw, husband, uncle, brother and father n law. I have many memories I’ll cherish of him. I wouldn’t be where I’m at today if it wasn’t for him, he helped me start my first business many years ago. He told me he loved me like his own son, I’ll never forget that. Rest in heaven. I love and miss you. Till we meet again.

“ I was privileged to work with Eddie in the late 60s early 70s, he was easy going, great to work for, but firm when it came to the quality of product that went into his meat case. As my meat department manager he insisted on everything being top notch. One day as I was getting ready to go home, he gave me a piece of meat and told me to take it home and enjoy it. One look at it and I told him I didn’t like the way it looked. He told me neither do my customers, but since you cut it, I thought you wouldn’t mind taking it home to your family. NOTE: LESSON LEARNED. I NEVER FOGOT THAT AND MADE IT PART OF MY WAY OF DOING THINGS WHEN I GOT INTO MANAGEMENT. THANK YOU EDDIE.

Martin Trevino, I've known both Eddie and Becky over 50 years, having worked in the Meat Dept. in different stores only one time under his supervision, yes he was a perfectionist, straight forward to detail on what he expected of his Mgrs in his zone of stores. The memories I share with the Victor's are somewhat personal in different ways. I remember sharing great memories of both the birth of their children , and their growth since during both our years in the business we sometimes worked in the same store. And later on we became Neighbors and as we grew closer friendship they opened their doors and often babysat one of my children. Their friendship has lasted this long and will continue because I've seen the loving family they are when I saw there granddaughter's birth from their daughter Rebeca. Everyday at work she talked about her and about her accomplishments as we both witnessed her growth in life with all the photos she would show me. I could go on but I have say that Eddie touched a lot of people even after his retirement and sign business and his yard for the Athletes in Schools around the neighborhood's. He had a lot of special skills, he was that gifted. I must end by giving my Condolences to all the Victor Family here and La. My Comrade in Arms as we are all Brothers for our Country we served, R.I.P. Eddie 🙏 I will miss your humor.

“ As I looked through the hundreds and hundreds of pictures of my Dad and I throughout my life, so many memories came back to me that I had forgotten. My Dad was the most patient Dad and the most fun. The memories will live with me forever. Then looking at the more recent pictures of him with my kids, his grandkids, and he was the same way, so patient, fun, and loving. I'm so thankful they were able to be so close to him as I was. We will all take a part of him with us for the rest of our lives. We will continue to make you proud, Dad. This is not goodbye, just see you later.

“ My Dad was fun, loving, the smartest person I have ever known, he always smiled and you could feel the love. When I was small I remember he would let me dance standing on his feet, he could dance, he would take me to school and we would talk all the way, he loved his family very much and was so proud of all of them. I will miss him so much, I love you DAD!
