

Edna Peters Fink

December 28, 1925 - August 6, 2014

Edna Peters Fink passed peacefully on August 6, 2014 at SPJST Nursing Home in Needville. She was born December 28, 1925 to Leo and Julie Barcak Peters, the fifth of six children. She was married to Alvin Fink for 63 years. She was a lifelong resident of the Tadpole Community in Fort Bend County.

In 1948, she married Alvin Fink. Together they farmed cotton, corn, and sorghum in the Tadpole Community. She raised her family on produce from her garden, and poultry, pork and beef from the farm. She baked the world's best kolaches and made noodles from scratch. She gardened and cared for her cows until health issues caused her to enter a nursing home. Here she played bingo, made new friends, and continued to be a keen observer of the world about her. She was a lifetime member of Sts. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in Damon and the KJZT.

She is survived by her children and their families: Carol and Robert Brewer, Charlotte and Richard Mills, both of Damon, TX; Loretta and Thomas Powell of Tomball, TX; David and Carolyn Fink of Needville, TX; and Charles Fink of Needville, TX. She is survived by 11 grandchildren: Major Troy Mills and his wife, Chelsea of Needville, TX; Major Travis Mills and his wife, Lisa of Tampa, FL; Scott Brewer of Arlington, VA; Elizabeth Brewer of Katy, TX; Michelle Powell and Russell McCammon of Tomball, TX; Kurt Powell of Tomball, TX;

Nicole Fink of Kyle, TX; Kayla Fink of Stephenville, TX; Dustin Temple of Laredo, TX; C. J. Fink and fiancé, Amanda Etzler of Needville, TX; and Dustin "Bean" Fink, all of Needville, TX. She is survived by 4 great grandchildren: Taylor Caluwe, Austin Mills, Dalton McCammon and Cohen Mills. She is survived by her sisters, Evelyn Kolar and Liddie White; also her sisters-in-law, Florine Sims and Willie Mae Hawkins, and her brother-in-law, Eugene Fink.
