

Edna Tucker Jones

September 21, 1936 - January 13, 2021

On January 13, 2021, Edna Jones left this Earth peacefully surrounded by family. Edna was born to Ben Tucker and Vada (Tucker) Hardy on September 21, 1936. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband L.P. (Red) Jones and her sister Rebecca Hilbrich.

Edna grew up in the Exxon Oil Field Camp in Thompson, Texas. She always said that she couldn't imagine a better place to grow up. She attended Lamar High School where she met Red. They married in April of 1954 and had four children: Harley, Phyllis, Phillip and Laura. In the early 70s the family moved from Rosenberg to East Bernard where she lived for almost 30 years.

During this time, she was an avid bowler - enjoying traveling around the U.S. to the National Bowling Tournaments with her friends. She was a volunteer EMT with the East Bernard EMS and worked disaster relief with the Red Cross. Edna also enjoyed throwing horseshoes and became one of the founding members of the Riverside Horseshoe club.

Edna loved to travel, camp and play games. She enjoyed playing cards and dominos with the many friends that she made at the Regency Villas during the seven years that she lived in Schulenburg. She especially enjoyed playing Words with friends with her grandson Ben (Benji) Polak.

Those that will carry on her memory are: son, Harley Jones and his wife Debbie, daughter Phyllis Knesek and husband Blake, son Phillip Jones and daughter Laura Kubena and her husband Joseph Kubena. “ Such a dear friend. We were bowling buddies for years. I always enjoyed her stories of her adventures. So glad I and my family were able to spend a few hours with her about a year ago. I will so miss her.
