

Edna Woytek

September 1, 1919 - December 18, 2011

Edna Woytek, 92, passed away peacefully in the early morning hours of December 18, 2011 at her daughter's house in Cypress, Texas where she had been living for over a year. Edna was born in Needville, Texas on September 1, 1919 and resided in Needville most of her life.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Oscar Woytek; her parents Frank and Sophie Sitta; brother, Jerome Sitta; and sisters, Audrey Tullos and Clolia Shine.

Edna's family includes daughters, Iona Boyd and husband, Thurmond, Debbie Vaello and husband, Phil; grandchildren, Kristen Vaello, Audra Vaello, Laura Boyd Trkula and husband, David, Jill Boyd, and Roger Boyd. Survivors also include great-grandchildren, Kris Jeffcoat, Jennifer Jeffcoat, and Skylar Stone; and sister, Lydia Jensen.

Edna spent many years working in retail sales. Before retiring she enjoyed working for several years at Kocurek's Nursery and Flower Shop. Her home was always decorated with lovely floral arrangements. She loved gardening and her guests loved her baking, including cakes, pies, cinnamon rolls, and kolaches. A word that was often used to describe Edna was "feisty".

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Davis-Greenlawn. Funeral and services will be on Thursday, December 22, 2011 at 1 P.M. at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, 9122 Church St., Needville with Rev. Jonathan Murray officiating. Burial will follow at the Sitta Cemetary on Foster School Road.

Visitation will be 5-7 P.M. Wednesday, December 21 at the Davis Chapel, 9302 Church St., Needville, Texas.

“ What a tremendous loss of a fiesty lady. I'll miss Mrs. Woytek's smiling face and laughter at future family gatherings. Her husband Oscar was my father Lee Filla's first cousin as their mothers Theresa Trlica Woytek and Albina Trlica Filla were sisters.
