“ Mrs. Elda Fernandez was a beautiful person inside and out. During the past 50 plus years, we made lots of beautiful memories, as neighbors, at St. Marks Catholic Church, and life celebrations no matter the distance or time. In loving memory of your Mother Mrs. Elda Fernandez May she rest in heaven.

Griselda, Rudy and Ozzie and your family are in our mind and prayers. Love Ruby Ramirez

“ My Grandma was an amazing woman of The Lord who put others first for as long as I've known her. She is the reason for my faith in God and I won't let a day pass by without thinking about her. She will be greatly missed but I have peace knowing she is home now with her beloved husband, my Grandpa 🙏 Rest in Power to my beautiful Elda Fernandez. I love you dearly ❤️

Elda Fernandez was such an amazing friend, she had the coolest personality that I will never ever forget, she was also my hair stylist and she always did such an amazing job on my hair, and always inspired others and myself, she had such an amazing smile I will never forget. I will always remember working with her back when she had her Salon in Missouri City the name of the Salon was Eldas Salon we had such fun together and we worked as a great team and it was fun working with this amazing lady she taught me so many things at her Salon. When I heard of her passing away it was heartbreaking I will never forget our last talks and last laughs we had together and she would tell me I love you Monica I will never forget you Ms. Elda and I love you to beautiful. I know now she is resting in peace and in the open gates of heaven mom and I will miss you RIP our sweet friend Elda Fernandez :)

“ Elda was a sweet friend and Christian mentor to me for many years. She will actually be buried in the same cemetery as my aunt, Frances Wilhelm, who was also very special to me. May your family know that Elda touched many lives in a positive way.
